Photograph the cutest monkeys in the world!

All wildlife photographers love to photograph bathing Japanese Macaques (aka Snow Monkeys)! Nowhere else in the world can you find monkeys enjoying a hot bath in the middle of mountains.

On this extension, we spend one and half days and one night in a special park with Snow Monkeys. This will give us great opportunity to photograph this enigmatic species throughout the day including the first and last light when the park is closed.

Combine Amazing Hokkaido tour with Bathing Snow Monkey. And don't forget our Cranes of Izumi tour!

ITINERARY

Day 1 Meeting with our local guide in Tokyo 12:30

Meeting with our local guide at Haneda airport. From where we continue to Tokyo station to catch Shinkansen high-speed train to Nagano. In Nagano we overnight near the railway station in a good hotel.

Day 2 Snow Monkey photography

After breakfast transportation to Hotel near monkey park. After leaving luggage to hotel private transportation to Snow Monkey park. We start our walk up the trail with camera gear and other equipment from the gate. The trail is about 2 kilometers long and might be icy. Jigokudani is usually crowded so be prepared to meet many other photographers.

We spend the day photographing Snow Monkeys in Jigokudani Monkey Park.

Japanese Macaques aka Snow Monkeys are well known and very photogenic. These monkeys are the only monkeys in the world which are known to bath in the hot spring to keep themselves warm during cold winter days.

In afternoon walk back to cars and transportation back to hotel and dinner at hotel.

Day 3 From Jigokudani to Narita

Breakfast at hotel. Private transfer to Snow Monkey park. Snow Monkey photography until midday.

In the afternoon we head back to hotel to pick up the luggage. Private transporto to Nagano. Then we take a train from Nagano to Tokyo, and a private transporto from Tokyo station to Haneda airport to stay over night in the airport hotel.
